

Borealis Suzuki Winds Institute 2019

For Teachers & Parents:

Every Child Can!

This class is a one day introduction to the basic principles of the Suzuki approach to teaching and learning. Following a language learning model, we discover how to teach following the same process as an infant learns its native language - easy, fun, and natural! Open to teachers of any instrument as well as interested parents.

- Thursday August 15 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
- Schoen Duo Studio 8937 79 Ave
- Cost: $120 (includes textbook)

For Teachers:

Introduction to Suzuki Recorder

Tired of squeaky out of tune beginner groups? This class is for you! Learn how to make a beautiful tone from the very beginning. Using a series of simple engaging folk melodies, develop ear training skills and breath control as well as gain useful pointers for setting up playing position and posture. Open to school teachers and ensemble leaders, as well as players who are interested in improving their basic skills.

- Friday August 16 - Sunday August 18 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
 - Schoen Duo Studio 8937 79 Ave
 - Cost: $300
- *ECC! is a prerequisite to this class

For Teachers:

Creative Ability Development (CAD)

Use musical improvisation as a tool to develop creativity. Alice Kanack's innovative methods build a supportive environment for experimentation and growth. Starting with simple activities suitable for beginners, improvisation can be introduced from the very beginning of instrument study. Combining simple activities leads to more complex ensemble improvisations. Mixed level groups can be accommodated by adding challenges to individual parts, while keeping the group activity accessible to all levels of player. For more info about Alice Kanack and her CAD program, check out her website here.

- Monday August 19 - Friday August 23 9:00 am - 5:00 pm
- Faculté St. Jean, Pavillon McMahon, 8406 rue Marie-Anne-Gaboury (91 St.)
- Cost: $450
